

LINDA NEAL

Independent Study: Off the Block

SUPPLY LIST

- Regular Starch (NOT heavy duty) with small container (aerosol or non -aerosol)
- Roxanne's Glue Baste It*
- Stiletto- one with a good sharp metal point that feels comfortable to you
- Brush- 1/4 in. angled paint brush from the painting section at a craft store
- Small craft iron- Clover wedge iron is awesome. If you have another brand of small iron that's fine- just make sure it gets HOT
- Cheri's Cool Tool*- Preferred. (Available from: cheriscrystals.com) A clover mini iron will work, but not as well.
- Flower head pins or similar
- Scissors For fabric: I prefer serrated – Kai® purple handle or Karen Kay Buckley® middle size - light blue handle
- Scissors For paper: curved and straight scissors in a variety of sizes. (I use Kai® 4 inch straight and curved, and Kai® 5 1/2 curved)
- Applique Scissors- straight, sharp tip
- Clover 1/4 bias maker (it MUST be the green one-NOT the purple one)
- Wool ironing mat ( size 12X18 or similar) with scrap of Cotton fabric to cover it or June Taylor® Quilter's Cut n Press board (approx. 12in X 12 in size) with a piece of scrap cotton fabric to cover it.
- 1/4 white foam core board - available from Walmart, Michaels or office supply store cut to size of your project
- Parchment paper - roll or pre-cut sheets - you need 1 piece the size of your project
- Blue painters' tape
- Freezer paper 8½" x 11"- Cut-Rite® is my favorite brand. Jenkins is Ok too
- Ultra-fine Sharpie® or Micron® pen- any color
- Pencil
- Silicone hot pad or silicone iron pad- keeps your irons from burning tables or falling onto floor during class
- Aleene's OK to Wash It®*
- Clover Wonder Clips-optional
- Extension cord- a short cord with surge protection to plug in both of your irons at your workspace
- Ott Light – if desired
- Your pattern, copy of your pattern on freezer paper reversed, copy of pattern to work off, fabric for project (pre-washed is preferred) background fabric, thread to match applique pieces, and your favorite applique needle. (I use a Size 8 straw) any anything else needed to sew or complete your project.
- Something to cover your work at night.
